MAKES ATTACK ON MEASURE

Senator Nelson Assails Administration Bill.

FRANK IN HIS STATEMENTS

Minnesotan Does Not Mince Words in His Address in the Senate on the Railroad Bill—Generally Conceded That His Speech Will Add Strength to the Opposition.

Washington, April 12.—Senator Nelson made a powerful assault upon the administration railroad bill in the senate. Mr. Nelson spoke for an hour, and he was given the closest attention by administration and progressive senators. His speech is regarded as the frankest discussion of the measure that has been heard in the senate. That it will add strength to the opposition is generally conceded.

"Mr. president, my opinion of this bill, as it came here, is that in its essence its chief aim was to protect the railroads against the anti-trust law," declared Senator Nelson during the course of his speech. "I can come to no other conclusion."

At another stage Senator Nelson said: "In regard to the anti-trust law, next to the Constitution of the United States, is the most important on the statute books, and the one that the people of the country stand in most need of. It is the only protection they have against the aggression and the wrongs of trusts, monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade. In fact, it is the only legislative shield they have against such evils."

Without mincing words Senator Nelson declared that the administration bill was designed to except railroads from the application of the anti-trust law. This was sought to be accomplished, he said, through Sections 7 and 12 of the measure. Section 7 of the bill, as it came from the attorney general, he pointed out, legalized traffic agreements such as had been declared unlawful on decisions of the United States supreme court. Section 12, he asserted, proposed to legalize railroad consolidations such as was attempted in the case of the Northern Securities company.

Predicts a Revolution.

Senator Nelson predicted that if the people were denied protection against the rapacity of monopolies and trusts that some day they would rise in their might and crush the captains of industry.

"What makes socialism in this country?" he asked.

"What makes the labor organizations restless and nervous?"

He answered the questions in this wise: "It is because they feel that that which we measure out to the strong and the rich we do not measure out to the poor and the lowly, to the laboring and the struggling classes. If you are going to grant immunity to the railroad companies from the provisions of the anti-trust law why not grant immunity to labor organizations and be done with it and, what is still more wrong—not by any insidious attempt as in this bill—repeal the anti-trust law altogether."

Continuing, Senator Nelson said: "Trusts and combinations have been forming at a rapid rate. If you leave the door open they will continue to grow at a more rapid rate. If you leave the gate ajar they will grow and grow apace, and by and by the day will come when the American people will be in the fangs of these trusts just as the poor French people were in the hands of their nobility prior to the great French revolution, when all of the lands of that country were owned by a few and the people generally were utterly helpless."

"If we are no wiser than the French were in the days of Louis XV. and Louis XVI., and allow these combinations to grow and grow, the day will come when the American people will have to resort to revolution as the people of France had to do."

THIRTEEN MEN SELECTED

Temporarily Chosen as Jurors in the Hyde Case.

Kansas City, April 12.—Thirteen of the forty-seven temporary jurors from whom the final twelve men will be chosen to try Dr. B. C. Hyde on a charge of murdering Colonel Thomas H. Swope were selected during the opening session of the trial in the criminal court here.

The men temporarily selected for jury duty and more than fifty veniremen who have not been examined were remanded to the custody of the county marshal at the close of the session. They were instructed not to discuss the case or read newspaper articles relating to it. Attachments have been issued for seventy-five veniremen who failed to respond.

Mrs. Loan O. Swope, who is responsible for the prosecution of Dr. Hyde, met her daughter, Mrs. Hyde, in the courtroom, but neither spoke. This was the first time they have seen each other since Dec. 18, when Mrs. Swope ordered Dr. Hyde from her house, and Mrs. Hyde, spurning her mother's grave charges against the physician, left with him.

CALLING AT THE VATICAN.

Ex-Diplomatist's Views on the Pope's Reception of Strangers.

After the dispatch from Rome stating former President Roosevelt's reasons for not calling on the pope during his recent stay at Rome was read to a well known diplomat, who did not wish his name to be used, he said: "There is nothing surprising in the refusal of the pope to receive Theodore Roosevelt. The same thing has occurred with foreign princes who have visited Rome and is the reason why the emperor of Austria and the king of Spain never go there. Troubles, however, generally arise over the conflict between the Quirinal and the Vatican. If the king of England went to Rome and called first at the Quirinal palace to see the king the pope would refuse to receive him."

"All kinds of devices have been tried to get around this obstacle. Two years ago an ex-president of Brazil went to Rome and called at the Quirinal and then left Rome for a trip into the country, which lasted a week. On his return he went direct to the Vatican and was received, as it was regarded as a second visit to the city. One of the Hohenzollern princes went to Rome a year ago and had an audience with the king. Then he went away for a month and came back to see the pope and was received through the subterfuge of the second visit."

"What is the procedure for an American citizen to pursue in getting an audience with the pope?" he was asked. "The usual way," replied the diplomat, "is to call on Bishop Kennedy at the American college in Rome, and he arranges the audience. The United States embassy has no relations with the Vatican. Numbers of prominent Catholics from the United States take over letters of introduction from Cardinal Gibbons or Archbishop Farley, which they present to Mgr. Bisleti at the Vatican and get an audience with the pope direct."

"Personally he is very well disposed toward Americans and likes them very much. On an average the pope receives from 2,500 to 3,000 Americans a year. Protestants as well as Catholics are included in this number, but naturally the latter are largely in the majority. The audiences are given in the royal suit in the Vatican and are of two kinds, private and in groups. In a private audience the head of the Catholic church shakes hands and converses with the individual to whom it has been accorded. In the groups of pilgrims or other large bodies not exceeding 200 the pope passes down the line and bestows a general blessing and holds out his hand for the participants in the audience to kiss the ring."

BOOTS FOR MINISTER GAGE.

Scorns Shiny Pumps and "Lord Fauntleroy Pants" for Court Functions.

With eighteen new pairs of long legged boots Henry T. Gage, ex-governor of California, left Los Angeles the other day for King Manuel's court in Lisbon to be American envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Portugal. Governor Gage and his boots are an institution in California, but when his appointment was announced he received from a London tailor who makes a specialty of diplomatic outfitting a circular sternly informing him that he must provide himself with small, silk stockings and shiny pumps.

According to the best information from the firing line, the newly appointed diplomat threw the diagrams of what he called "Lord Fauntleroy pants" in the waste paper basket and sent out for those eighteen pairs of huge boots.

"I'm going to go dressed as an American," said he, "and in full length trousers, not to mention boots."

Since his youth Mr. Gage has stuck to real boots. When he was elected governor his friends chuckled and said that they had him, for they said, "They don't make patent leather boots." But when the inaugural took place the governor elect triumphantly led the grand march in a pair of patent leather dress boots.

SENATOR DOLLIVER.

Iowan Will Reply to Taft and Wickersham.

COPYRIGHT BY HARRIS & WING

SENATOR DOLLIVER WILL MAKE REPLY

Iowa Man to Answer Taft and Wickersham.

Washington, April 12.—Senator Dolliver of Iowa has been chosen by the senate progressives to make a reply in a speech in the senate to the speeches of President Taft, Attorney General Wickersham and Representative Longworth, made last Saturday night. It is expected that Mr. Dolliver will give some voice to the undercurrent of comment here about the divergent remarks of the president and Mr. Wickersham with regard to the Western progressives. One explanation of the discrepancy offered here was that President Taft was dissuaded from making a speech of similar tenor to that of Mr. Wickersham, whose speech he saw before it was delivered, by representations made to him at the last moment.

It is understood here that Senator Dolliver, when he makes his speech, will politely resent the implication that it is necessary for anybody to read the Republican progressives back into the Republican party. The progressives say that, inasmuch as nobody can read them out of the party, it is equally certain that nobody can read them in. While they approve of President Taft's speech as a whole, and have no criticism of Mr. Wickersham's speech, except as to the progressives, they prefer to make their own explanations and deductions of their position, and have therefore enlisted Senator Dolliver to turn the trick.

BAD FIRE IN PRISON CITY

Property Valued at Sixty Thousand Dollars Destroyed.

Stillwater, Minn., April 12.—For several hours the city of Stillwater seemed due to destruction by fire which started, it is supposed, from a locomotive spark dropping on the roof of a large warehouse, the property of the Northwest Thresher company, on North Main street. The total loss will amount to $60,000.

The high wind fanned the increasing flames and carried embers and blazing fagots close to the state prison, destroying three dwellings. Company K of the Minnesota national guard, located at Stillwater, was called out lest the prison become ignited and the prisoners liberated. Lifting the flaming debris over the bluff which overlooks the prison the high wind carried firebrands into the residence district, where they set fire to three houses and a barn. The buildings were entirely destroyed. Five other buildings were damaged, but hundreds were saved by the presence of mind of women and children, who soaked carpets and bed clothing in water and spread them on the porches and roofs to quench incipient blazes.

Finding its department unable to cope with the fire assistance was asked of St. Paul and apparatus from that city was rushed to the aid of Stillwater on a special train via the Omaha road.

Receive Conscience Money.

Milwaukee, April 12.—"Conscience money" to the amount of $1,500 has been restored to the Filer & Stowell company by five of its employees through a Milwaukee minister—and the men are still working. Neither Thomas J. Neacy nor Walter Read know where it came from. In fact, they are making no effort to do so. Each received $750 by division, and all parties appear to be satisfied.

Tries to Commit Suicide.

Fergus Falls, Minn., April 12.—R. R. Hughes of Osakis attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself through the head, but while the bullet passed through a considerable portion of his brain he is still alive and may recover. Hughes has been subject to fits of melancholy.

Two Men Meet Death.

Duluth, April 12.—John Beshe, an employee of the Oliver Iron Mining company, and who resided with his family at the Crookston location, was killed by a switch engine near Chisholm. Another man was killed at the Virginia mine, near Eveleth, by inhaling fumes after a blast.

BLAKELY GETS HOTEL REGISTER

Pittsburg Prosecutor Obtains Valuable Evidence.

NAME OF "MAN HIGHER UP"

Believed to Be Inscribed on the Book of the New York Hostelry—Frank N. Hoffstot, Alleged Leader of a Pool to Influence Legislation in Favor of Pittsburg Banks, Will Resist Extradition.

Pittsburg, April 12.—The registers of the Hotel Imperial, New York, at which place the largest sum of the bribe money for Pittsburg councilmen was paid to Charles Stewart in June, 1908, are in the possession of District Attorney William A. Blakely. The books are expected to reveal the signature of the man, as yet unnamed, who handed over the money to Stewart.

Frank N. Hoffstot, the alleged leader of a pool which raised a $52,000 fund to influence legislation in favor of six Pittsburg banks, will fight extradition from New York to Pittsburg. His local attorney, W. B. Rodgers, gives out that the decision to fight extradition was based on the following considerations:

"It is manifest on the face of the presentment that the object of the indictments recommended therein is to endeavor to compel Mr. Hoffstot to appear before the grand jurors and submit to an examination by them as to the very transactions concerning which they found indictments. We think that in advance of trial such a proceeding is improper and that our client should not be exposed to such inquisition."

"In addition there is a serious question with respect to the constitution of the present grand jury, to which your attention has been called by motion to quash a certain indictment found by it."

The latter references are to the motion made last week that Harrison Nesbit is ineligible to serve as foreman of the jury because he is not, it is alleged, a legal resident of the county. Judge R. S. Fraser, who was to rule on this point Monday, postponed his decision.

In reply to the counsel for Hoffstot, District Attorney Blakely said that extradition proceedings would be begun at once. Mr. Blakely himself will go to Albany to lay the paper before Governor Hughes.

COUNSEL FOR STEENERSON

American Federation Lawyer to Represent Minnesotan.

Washington, April 12.—Representative Steenerson has engaged Jackson H. Ralston of this city as his counsel in the ship subsidy investigation. Ralston is counsel for the American Federation of Labor and is reported to have made investigations into the operations of the steel trust and other industries with which it has been alleged officers of the Merchant Marine league are connected and which would benefit by the passage of a ship subsidy bill. Representative Nye was to have acted for Steenerson, but there was a question of the propriety of a member of the house acting in this capacity, because the entire membership was said to have been rejected and the Minneapolis member could not devote his time to the case in view of the possible length of the investigation.

KILLED BY BLOW ON THE JAW

Duluth Man Meets Death in a Fist Fight.

Duluth, April 12.—Matt Krznazis, a saloonkeeper, was killed in the Oregon restaurant on West Superior street and three men are under arrest, suspected of the killing.

Krznazis went into the restaurant, which is run by Chinamen, and ordered a meal, and after eating it he had some words with the girl cashier over the price. It is said that he became angry and tried to strike the girl with a kitchen knife. A number of men in the restaurant, patrons of the place, interfered, and one of them struck Krznazis a blow on the jaw that crumpled him up and he died from the effects of it.

Vamin Anich and John Anich and Joe Samer's are under arrest.

Accused of Starting Prairie Fires.

Pierre, S. D., April 12.—David Moyes, who lives on a homestead near Midland, has been arrested and placed under bonds for his appearance in circuit court charged with starting a prairie fire. It is the first arrest in that county following the many fires since the settlement of the county.

Two Men Meet Death.

Duluth, April 12.—John Beshe, an employee of the Oliver Iron Mining company, and who resided with his family at the Crookston location, was killed by a switch engine near Chisholm. Another man was killed at the Virginia mine, near Eveleth, by inhaling fumes after a blast.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES.

Big Pugilist Has Narrow Escape From Execution.

CLOSE CALL FOR JEFFRIES

Pugilist Narrowly Escapes Death or Injury.

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 12.—The old question of whether hard luck is camping on the trail of James J. Jeffries, determined to put the champion out for the count before he gets a chance to show what he can do against Jack Johnson on July 4, came to the front again at Jeffries' training camp, when the big fighter had a close call to death or injury through a live wire.

Jeffries went out to cut down a redwood, accompanied by Farmer Burns and Jack Woolley, an Oakland sportsman. When the tree fell it crashed through a string of power wires, and the end of a telephone line dropped close to the Jeffries party, striking within a few feet of where the champion stood. All near the champion were frightened thoroughly, but Jeffries did not show any emotion. He went right to work cutting logs and chopping wood.

GIFFORD PINCHOT MEETS ROOSEVELT

But No Statement Regarding Conference Is Issued.

Porto Maurizio, April 12.—Gifford Pinchot, the former chief forester of the United States department of agriculture, whose interview with the ex-president has been looked forward to with great interest, spent the entire day with Mr. Roosevelt, but what passed between them is a secret.

Mr. Pinchot arrived at the Carew villa before 9 o'clock in the morning. He remained for lunch and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Carew on a five-hour excursion into the mountains. They had dinner together also and the former forester did not return to his hotel until shortly before midnight. Mr. Pinchot, when seen at the villa just before dinner, declined to say what he had communicated to the ex-president and Mr. Roosevelt's prediction a few days ago that neither would have anything to give out concerning the meeting proved to be entirely correct.

Mr. Roosevelt's secretary, however, gave to the anxious newspaper men a long and graphic account of how the party drove through the olive orchards of the Caramagna valley, then climbed six miles up the winding road to the famous little chapel, once visited by Charlemagne on his way to be crowned at Rome, which contains interesting relics of the old Mediterranean galley slaves and votive offerings of sailors; also how enthusiastic the villagers were as the party was returning, crowding about the carriage and fairly deluging it with wild flowers.

But when pressed about the subject of the long conversation between Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Pinchot the secretary announced, without a smile, that it consisted largely of reminiscences and hunting stories, gravely confiding the information that Mr. Pinchot was almost as good a shot as his former chief.

BEYOND ANY COMPARISON

Movement of Settlers to the Western States.

Chicago, April 12.—"Business continues active throughout the West and the movement of freight has been satisfactory since the cessation of storms. The congestion was east of the Missouri river rather than west," said A. J. Earling, president of the Milwaukee railroad, in a summary of business conditions.

"Business development west of the Missouri river has been extraordinary. It was thought the new coal mines would afford a surplus of fuel, but the Puget Sound territory needs all it can get. The influx of settlers to Montana from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan is unprecedented. Last year's movement seemed abnormal, but this year's movement is largely beyond any comparison."

DECLARATION BY SPEAKER CANNON

ALL ARE STILL IN THE RACE

Bowers, Sanborn and Vandevanter Not Yet Eliminated.

Washington, April 12.—When it was announced in the supreme court that a rehearing of the Standard Oil and American Tobacco company cases would be necessary, the conclusion was drawn in many quarters that this decision practically eliminated Circuit Judges Vandevanter and Sanborn, and Solicitor General Bowers from suggestion as Mr. Justice Brewer's successor. This was based upon the fact that the two judges had passed upon the cases which are to be considered and that Mr. Bowers assisted in the preparation of the government's case.

Inquiries at the White House later in the day, however, developed the fact that President Taft is taking the position that if a man be deemed fit for the supreme court bench the fact that he passed upon pending cases in a lower court, or assisted in the preparation of a pending case in any way, should not be a bar to his appointment. It was stated positively that this announcement of the president's opinion, however, was not in the interest of any candidate.

The information from the White House distinctly leaves Judges Vandevanter and Sanborn and Solicitor General Bowers in the race. But there is a host of other receptive candidates whose friends are bringing pressure to bear upon the president.

INTENDS TO FIGHT ORDER

Pullman Company to Carry Rate Case Into Court.

Washington, April 12.—Members of the interstate commerce commission are satisfied that the Pullman company will contest in the federal courts the decision lowering the rates between Chicago and Minneapolis and between Minneapolis and the Pacific coast.

Notice of intention to attack the commission's ruling in this way has not been served on the commission formally, but there was a plain intimation of this when the case was heard by the commission. Counsel for the Pullman company announced that while they intend to try the Loftus complaint purely on its merits they intend to preserve all their legal rights.

Taking the case into the courts will mean a delay of at least a year in the enforcement of the decision, assuming that the commission is sustained. Under the law the Pullman company may file suit in the circuit court and, under the expediting act, appeal can be taken directly to the supreme court and, on motion of the government, because of its importance, can be advanced for argument at an early day after being placed on the docket.

The suit will be entered, in all probability, in the circuit court for the district of Minnesota, as the case originated with a resident of that state.

Costly Fires at Dubuque.

Dubuque, Ia., April 12.—Fire of supposedly incendiary origin swept one of the Standard Lumber company's yards and destroyed several million feet of lumber. The damage is $100,000. This is the third disastrous fire in Dubuque since Thursday night. Many believe all three were of incendiary origin.

"Uncle Joe" Says He Will Not Voluntarily Retire.

PROGRESSIVES PLAN A COUP

Just as Soon as the Republican Leaders Decide Upon and Fix a Date for Adjournment of Congress a Resolution Declaring the Office of Speaker Vacant Will Be Introduced.

Washington, April 12.—Speaker Cannon declared on the floor of the house that he will hold on to the speakership until March 4, 1911, unless the Republican progressives have the courage to join with the Democrats and remove him.

It is learned that the progressives are planning to accept the speaker's challenge at the close of this session. Just as soon as the Republican leaders decide upon and fix a date for adjournment a resolution declaring the office of speaker vacant will be introduced.

Progressive leaders assert it will have the support of a sufficient number of Republican members to insure its passage if the Democrats line up solidly for it, as they did in support of the Burleson resolution at the time of the successful revolt against Cannon's domination of the committee on rules. According to the plan as now outlined no successor to Speaker Cannon will be chosen this spring.

Congress will adjourn with a vacancy in the speakership, and a new speaker will be elected when the short session is opened next December.

Progressives Remain Silent.

None of the progressives will discuss the matter for publication at this time and as yet the proposition has not been broached to the Democrats.

Champ Clark, the minority leader, said that he did not know whether such a resolution would be offered and he also stated that he did not know whether the Democrats would support it in event it should be introduced.

It is possible that the Democrats will decide that it would be poor politics for them to assist in the final downfall of Cannon, or that a sufficient number of them will absent themselves from the house at the time the issue is presented to prevent the passage of the resolution.

But if Democrats stand as they stood on March 19 progressives declare they will play the game to a finish. They believe it would be the best thing that could happen for the Republican party and they are certain it would help them in their own state.

Speaker Cannon's speech was a notable one in connection with the proposed automobile appropriation. He arraigned newspaper attacks and characterized Democratic Leader Clark as a false prophet. He declared that the next election would show Mr. Clark the same false prophet that he had been every two years in recent times. Remarks were made by several members before the roll was called.

MANY PEOPLE ARE INJURED

Wreck Due to Misunderstanding of Orders.

Waterloo, Ia., April 12.—D. B. Miser of Minneapolis was seriously injured in a head on collision between a Rock Island passenger and freight near Garrison, Ia. His injuries were to the back and face, and he was taken to a Cedar Rapids hospital for treatment.

The accident was due to a misunderstanding of train orders, and thirty-one people were injured.

Longworth Coming West.

Washington, April 12.—Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, son-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt, will appear on the stump in several of the Northwestern states this fall. Mr. Longworth's speech Saturday in defense of the tariff pleased the regular Republicans. Mr. Longworth will deliver the same speech under the direction of the Republican congressional committee in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and other states where there is supposed to be sentiment hostile to the new tariff law.

Kosher Strike Spreading.

New York, April 12.—The boycott against kosher butcher shops spread from Harlem and the Bronx, where it originated, across East river to Williamsburg, Brownsville and East New York. All meats advanced 1 cent a pound wholesale. The protest against high prices is spreading more rapidly than any similar movement remembered in New York city.

Grass and Brush Fires Raging.

Duluth, April 12.—There is grave danger of forest fires in the vicinity of Duluth and all over the iron ranges. A fire has been reported near Alger, near mile post 31 on the Iron Range road. Another is burning near Bovey and another at the headwaters of French river. Grass and brush fires have been started near Duluth, but have been promptly extinguished.

STILL TIME TO RECONSIDER

The Duluth News-Tribune contains a write-up on state politics by Mary McFadden and in it the editor of the Tribune of this city comes in for a boost, and there is more truth than poetry in a part of the story. That part of it where Mary refers to the "scathing criticisms of Eberhart," could have been slightly modified, as Col. Halsted has not attempted any such stunt, having merely criticized where he thought proper, and there is no man in the party today who will do more for its success or go farther to help get together on the general proposition. And the Dispatch wants to go on record as making the prediction that The Tribune and its talented editor will be found supporting Gov. Eberhart or any other good man who receives the nomination for chief executive of the state at the November election. It isn't too late to reconsider and make Bro. Halsted lieutenant governor, with the consent of the republicans of Minnesota in convention assembled. Mary's Sunday article reads as follows:

"They tell a good story on the leaders of the Eberhart movement. Dar Reese and Ed. Smith became somewhat excited last week because of the favorable comment by the country press on Sam Gordon's candidacy for lieutenant governor. They decided long ago that Sam wouldn't do. He is persona non grata with the big interests, and especially the brewers. So Dar and Ed. consulted with a few of the state officials with regard to finding another country newspaper man to trot out for the job to counteract Gordon's strength. They had decided on A. J. Halsted of the Brainerd Tribune and the newspaper booms were already written when lo! and behold last week's Tribune came out with some scathing criticisms of Eberhart. Of course necessarily, the plan failed and Dar and Ed are still in search of a Moses from among the list of country editors. Probably to this day Brother Halsted doesn't know how closely a deserved honor missed him."

The telegraph brings the news that Grand Vizier Madani Glau has been poisoned by three of his wives. If the Grand Vizier indulges in the luxury of three or more wives he must expect those little household disturbances and if the dose he has received does not prove fatal probably five or six of his wives will club together on the next attempt.

A Washington dispatch under date of April 11 says that "among the principal increases made in the harbor bill as it came from the house for Minnesota is: Mississippi river, Brainerd to Grand Rapids, $22,555."

This means that the government will spend that amount in cleaning the river of snags and obstructions, and helps to put that much of Uncle Sam's coin in circulation in this section the coming season.

J. Adam Bede favors the election of a democratic congress at the coming election, if he is quoted correctly, stating that the republicans need straightening out, and then says he does not think he will be a candidate himself, owing to the fact that a poor man stands no show under the present primary system. Mr. Bede once wore birch bark pants and supported the democratic faith although it was generally supposed he had been long enough in the fold to get acclimated.

The annual outing of the North-Central Minnesota Editorial association will be held in the famous "White City," known also as Glenary Springs, on Leech lake, near Walker, on June 3-4-5, these dates having been determined upon by F. A. Dore, president of the association; A. G. Rutledge, secretary-treasurer, and P. H. McGarry, who met to form preliminary plans for the outing. This meeting will be one of the most pleasant that the editors of Northern Minnesota have ever enjoyed and it is hoped that the entire membership will be present. The meeting comes before the state association excursion and also before the state convention, which will add to the attendance.

The war still rages up at Detroit over the action of the "Pussyfoot" Johnson, the special government agent who is causing consternation among the liquor dealers in Northern Minnesota, and as a result Detroit will probably be lined up with the dry towns. The saloons were all closed but four and now Agent Johnson has notified these four to close within thirty days because they have violated the agreement, and a mass meeting attended by over 500 people has been held there for the purpose of backing him up in his stand—and the fight is a warm one. Johnson says two saloons may operate but by parties not heretofore engaged in the traffic there. At Pine River the government ordered all the saloons closed but one, and the village council said they would have three or none—and the likelihood of a dry town there is quite probable. The news has been generally circulated, but not verified, that eleven of the saloons in this city are on the list to go but no notice has yet been served on them. However, the rumor has had the effect of making the dealers more careful, if possible, as to whom they sell liquor, and the fact that many of the towns up the M. & I. pick their customers, if allowed to sell at all, makes it probable that the parties who are unable to slake their thirst at home will go abroad to obtain relief and as some of these have Indian blood in their veins it is almost imperative for a stranger with high cheek bones and a tanned complexion to have his credentials with him if he expects to crook his elbow in any of the Brainerd saloons at present. Along this line comes the news that a party of men from Walker held up a freight train at LaPort and after breaking the seal loaded up a wagon with bottled and keg beer and hauled it back to that town. The railroad company does not ship liquor to Walker since the order went into effect regarding the Indian country, although two saloons are allowed there, the company taking the stand that it is a violation of the law to ship to one person and refuse another, so the whole traffic has been abandoned both by freight and express. The seizure of this liquor and the breaking of a car seal was done by a party under the leadership of an agent of a brewing company who owned the beer in transit and just what action will be taken, if any, is unknown. Taking it all together the liquor business in the north country has received a bad jolt during the past few months.

THREE SUITS OVER CUYUNA RANGE

F. W. Hargreave Brings Suit to Recover a 5-64 Interest in a "Forty"

WANTS SHARE OF COMMISSION

E. R. Anderson Claims Fraud—B. L. Lagerquist Would Enforce Contract

Three suits have been filed for the coming term of court involving interests to land on the Cuyuna Range. The first of these is a suit brought by H. B. Fryberger, as attorney for F. W. Hargreaves, to secure a 5-64 interest in the south-east quarter of section 2-46-29. The complaint, which is on file in the office of the clerk of the district court of Crow Wing county, alleges that Wm. Rock was the owner of the aforesaid interest, and that he conveyed the interest to said Hargreave. Rock, according to the complaint, got this interest for work in locating the land and that when purchased the property was deeded to one L. L. Brown, as trustee for Rock and eastern parties who had put up the money for the purchase of the land. It is alleged that Brown transferred the property to the Hutchins Iron and Ore company, which is declared to be composed of all of the owners of the land except Rock, and the transfer is alleged to have been fraudulently made to cut Rock out of his interest. Rock, after selling his interest to Hargreave, also quit claimed to one Edward J. Daehler, who in turn deeded it to the Hutchins Iron and Ore company. Hargreave now brings suit to enforce his claim to title to an undivided 5-64 interest to the lands. The property is close to the heavy finds of high grade ore near Crosby and is undoubtedly very valuable.

A suit has also been brought by E. R. Anderson against Beatrice Hastings Barber and Frank A. Barber. The complaint in this case alleges that Anderson furnished money to Frank Barber on an agreement to give him one-half of any commission on interest he might get through negotiating the sale of the n½ sw, and north 30 acres of nw se of 27-45-30; that Barber secured a one-seventh interest in the land as his commission, and that to defraud said Anderson out of his interest Barber had it deeded direct to his wife, Beatrice Hastings Barber. The complaint asks that Anderson be decreed to be the owner of one-half of the one-seventh interest owned by Mrs. Barber.

The third suit is brought by Alderman, Mantor & Ebner, in behalf of B. L. Lagerquist to enforce the terms of a contract given by Abby F. Abbe to transfer to Lagerquist the n½ of the ne. of section 12-44-32 and lot 1, 26-44-32. The complaint alleges that there was a written contract given by the defendant to the plaintiff for the sale of the lands for the sum of $1500; that $25 was paid down and that the balance has been tendered in accordance with the terms of the contract, but that defendant refused to transfer the land as agreed. A decree is asked vesting the title in him.

These three suits are but an added evidence of the coming value of the lands of Crow Wing county and of the future of the Cuyuna iron range.

The Akeley Lumber company has commenced an action in the district court of Crow Wing county to quiet title to a large amount of land in towns 138-27, 138-28 and 140-31. There are about 50 defendants named.

The Duluth-News Tribune expresses the opinion that Rev. D. W. Lynch, for 14 years pastor of St. Francis Catholic church in this city, may be appointed pastor of Sacred Heart Cathedral, Duluth. Brainerd people, protestant and Catholic alike, would be very glad to hear of his much deserved promotion. The News-Tribune says:

"Father Daniel Lynch, of the St. James Catholic church, Fifty-seventh avenue west, may succeed Father Timothy Corbett as pastor of Sacred Heart Cathedral.

"The appointment will not be made for sometime. Rev. Fr. Lynch has spent many years in service at the St. James church and is considered by many as the logical successor to Rev. Fr. Corbett.

"The appointment of a pastor for the cathedral is in the hands of Bishop McGolrick.

The Demon of the Air
is the germ of LaGrippe, that, breathed in, brings suffering to thousands. Its after effects are weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. tts

Error.
If those alone who "sowed the wind did reap the whirlwind" it would be well. But the mischief is that the blindness of bigotry, the madness of ambition and the miscalculations of diplomacy seek their victims principally among the unoffending. The cottage is sure to suffer for every error of court, cabinet or camp. When error sits in the seat of power and of authority and is generated in high places it may be compared to that torrent which originates indeed in the mountain, but commits its devastation in the vale.—Colton.

To Really Cure Sick Kidneys

You must also get the liver and bowels right with DR. A. W. CHASE'S KIDNEY and LIVER PILLS

Strange, isn't it, that the intimate relation of the liver and kidneys should have been so long overlooked. And yet Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills owe their wonderful success to the recognition of this most essential point.

They ensure regular, healthful action of the liver and bowels, and thereby at once raise a burden from the kidneys and restore them to strength and vigor. There is no way you can so quickly free yourself of backaches as by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills.

Headaches disappear, biliousness and constipation are overcome, digestion improves, and you feel fine in every way.

What's the use of experimenting with new-fangled medicines of uncertain and untried value, when you can be sure of splendid results by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. One pill a dose. 25 cts. a box, all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. No need to suffer another day if you start this treatment now.

Cherub Devine

By SEWELL FORD

Copyright, 1909, by Mitchell Kennerley

As Eppings departed the hall clock chimed 7. The Cherub grinned. He had not breakfasted at 7 for years. In less than an hour, though, breakfast was an accomplished fact, and Mr. Devine, now soothed by one of his black cigars, set out for a more extended tour of the grounds. He discovered the path leading to the sound and had spent some time on the porch of the bathhouse watching the steamers and coasting vessels crawl past when Timmins came down, evidently in search of him.

"Maybe I didn't mention last night, sir," began Timmins suavely, "anything about the Hewingtons?"

"I guess you didn't, Timmins."

"The fact is, sir, they haven't gone."

"Haven't gone! Why, where are they?"

"Back at the house, sir. It's all on account of the old lady, sir, Mr. Hewington's sister, who has took so bad she couldn't be moved. Perhaps I—"

"It's all right. There's Mr. Hewington and his sick sister, is there? That all?"

"And the Countess Vecchi, sir."

"The which?" Mr. Devine grabbed the cigar from between his teeth and turned quickly on Timmins.

"The Countess Vecchi, sir, as stayed to look after the aunt. The countess is the married daughter, sir. The countess has been dead two years, sir, and—here Timmins coughed apologetically before precisely sorry to lose him."

"Not a howling success, eh?"

"Hardly, sir. The countess left him two hours after the wedding."

"She must be a hummer," observed the Cherub, and then reflectively: "Countesses are hardly in my line. Guess you can hook up pretty soon and drive me back to the station. I don't want to disturb the old lady."

"Lord, sir, you won't see any of them! No sooner did they hear you were coming than they moved into the top floor of the east wing, and there they've shut themselves up like the house was quarantined. Besides, sir, there isn't another express you could get to the city until the 10:30 tonight."

"Oh, well, there's plenty of time then! Perhaps you'll be able to dig up some more reports before night."

Mr. Devine was thinking of the young person he had seen in the garden. It didn't matter who she was, of course, but it might be interesting to know.

The day passed, however, without further discoveries, although at any moment the Cherub was prepared to find himself confronted either by Mr. Hewington or the countess or the young woman of the roses or some wholly unknown person.

He had seated himself for another solitary and stately meal when a bell rang somewhere, and Eppings excused himself to answer it. Then ensued out in the reception hall a whispered conversation, part of which Mr. Devine could hardly avoid hearing, although he was certain it was not intended for his ears.

"Is that—that dreadful man in there?" asked a voice.

"Oh, yes, he's supposed to announce important matters," answered the Countess Vecchi, sir."

A cherubic expression spread over the pink and white face of Mr. Devine. "Thinks I'm a sort of a cross between a cowboy and a pirate, eh? Seems to know all about me too?"

"He has read about you in the newspapers," ventured the countess, with a shy, half curious glance which for an instant met the calm, level gaze of Mr. Devine's blue eyes.
